

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, March 7. 1723.

Messina, January 26.

THE Count de Almenara, our Viceroy, gave Audience the 20th Instant to the Ambassador of Malta, and promised to assist that Island in Case the Turks should attack it. The Viceroy returned hither the 19th from visiting all the principal Sea Ports of this Kingdom. Between 5 and 600 Recruits are lately arrived at Reggio, and are to be brought hither to recruit the Imperial Regiments.

Genoa, Feb. 13. The Quarantine of Ships, is now reduced to five Days. The British Men of War under the Command of Commodore Scot sailed some Days ago from this Port. The Marquis de St. Phillip, Minister of Spain, has received Letters from his Catholick Majesty for the Grand Master of Malta, promising him speedy and considerable Succour in case the Turks attack that Island. The Venetian Republick has sent Orders to their Bailo at Constantinople, to demand a positive Answer of the Grand Vizier touching the Design of the present warlike Preparations of the Porte. The Squadron that sailed lately from Algiers to join the Ottoman Fleet has been put back thither by contrary Winds.

Hambourg, Feb. 26. Advices of the 17th Instant from Stockholm say, that the Duke of Holstein's Agent, M. Basswitz, arrived there the 12th Instant; that hitherto he keeps himself very quiet, not having yet had Audience of the King, but hopes to obtain one e'er long; in the mean time, he is daily in Conference with the Russian Minister. The Report continues of their Swedish Majesties Intention of going to Germany next Spring. 'Tis reported, that some Mines of Copper have been lately found near Olonitz, having Veins of Gold, which his Czarish Majesty designs to visit. Advices from Petersbourg mention the Preparations that are making in order to fit out some Men of War next Summer to discipline the Seamen, and that the Czar is expected there by the End of next Month. Letters from Dantzick say, that the Duke of Mecklenbourg has sent for more of his Domesticks thither, which makes it conjectured he designs to appear shortly in publick. Advices from Copenhagen say, that the Imperial Minister Count de Freytag is set out from thence for Stockholm; that Major-General Coyet is kept still in Prison, and the Particulars of his Examination very secret; that the Princess Royal of Denmark goes on very well with her great Belly; and that the Commissioners for trying Count de Rantzau have resumed their Proceedings, which, as soon as finished, are to be communicated to the Imperial Court.

Vinna, Feb. 20. It is said, that a Regency will be appointed for administering Affairs in Mecklenbourg till the present Disagreements between the Duke and his Nobility are ended, and that it will be conferred upon Prince de Beverne, of the House of Wolfenbottle. The Danish Minister here seems much dissatisfied at the Resolutions taken by this Court touching the Succession to the Dutchy of Ploen; and also, about the Decision of Count Rantzau's Case. 'Tis expected that a Commission of the Empire will shortly be appointed to determine both those Affairs. The Emperor's Departure for Presbourg is fixt to eight Days after Easter.

Advices from Constantinople say, that the Grand Signior is determined to have Residents at this Court, at Paris, at the Hague, and at Venice.

Heidelberg, March 3. A Gentleman arrived here Yesterday from Prince Don Emanuel of Portugal, to give this Court Notice that the Prince would be here either to Day or To-morrow.

Hague, March 9. The States Deputies are come hither to Day, in order to hold their Assembly To-morrow; they have yet several Affairs to regulate, viz. the Debts of North-Holland, the Squadron for the Mediterranean, the Disposal of the vacant military Places, and to concert Measures with the States of Zealand, and of other Provinces, for preventing the establishing a Stadthouder: The Deputies from Zealand are expected to be here about the 15th Instant. Instructions have been sent lately to M. Goes at Copenhagen, to offer some Proposals to that Court towards adjusting the Differences which are risen upon Occasion of Arrears remaining unpaid to the Danish Troops. Letters are seen here from the States to the Evangelical Body, to make a charitable Collection for the Support of the oppressed Protestants in the Empire, and also upon the Subject of a new Calendar.

Falmouth, March 2. Yesterday sailed the Pompey for London.

Dartmouth, March 3. Came in the Mary Brigantine from Topsham.

Deal, March 4. Arrived the Pompey from Leghorn; and Yorkshire Galley from North Bergen.

Deal, March 5. The outward bound are still here. The Roman Emperor is put back into Dover Pier.
